By Mike Connolly

Dear Sir: My kid brother in Viet Nam wants to know the draft status of Frank Sinatra Jr., Tommy Sands, Paul Petersen, Gary Lewis, Chris Connelly, Dick Chamberlain, Jim Stacy and George Hamilton. He and the guys in his outfit would like to send them fan — or perhaps I should say "pan" — letters as soon as they know. I'll bet this never sees print! — Mrs. Garth Williams, El Sobrante, Calif.

Dear Mari: She asks for cheese and champagne and if they aren't available she settles for a glass of water. Mineral water, no ice.

Dear Mike: Is Mickey Rooney going to get married again? The reason I ask is because I think those motherless children of his could use an affectionate person like me. I am about Mickey's age — thirty-fiveish — and am considered rather attractive by my friends. In addition, I love children and am a good cook and housekeeper. And I am shorter than Mickey. — Adele M. Murguia, Chicago.

Dear Mrs. Williams: George Hamilton's is the only special deferment in the bunch. The rest are all ready, willing and able, they tell me, when Uncle Sam beckons. What kind of bet did you have in mind?

Dear Mike: Is Betty Hutton really back working at Paramount with her old "Annie-Get Your Gun" co-star Howard Keel? I thought she was so "difficult" no studio would hire her. — Yvonne David, Ventura, Calif.

Dear Yvonne: Bouncing Betty is back, all right, co-starred with Keel as the dancehall lady in "Red Tomahawk." The years have a way of knocking the dander out of most of us, worse luck!

Dear Mr. C.: I wish some studio would re-make "Stella Dallas" with Susan Hayward in the title role and Rock Hudson in John Boles' old part. Can do? — Charles Drob, Philadelphia.

Dear Charles: I doubt it. The studios seem to feel poor old Stella has had it, and that a fourth re-make — despite Lana Turner's success with her "Madame X" revival — would be one too many. Besides, Susan is not only not ready for the sobbing mother bit so soon after the death of her husband, she feels she's too young for it.

Dear Sir: Is it true that the real Los Angeles society folk look down their noses at the movie people? — Mrs. Emmett Coleman, Washington, D.C.

Dear Mrs. Coleman: Our local upper crust used to snub "those poor little movie stars who have to work for a living" way back in the days of the silents but they don't any more, not since Queen Marie of Romania snubbed them to meet instead Hollywood's King and Queen, Doug Fairbanks and Mary Pickford. Late, of course, we've had Lynda Bird Johnson, Princess Margaret and Prince Philip.

Area Heart Association To Install New Officers

Miss Eileen O'Brien of Redondo Beach will be installed as the 1966-67 non-medical vice chairman of the Los Angeles County Heart Association's Southwestern Branch at its second annual dinner and installation June 4 at 3501 N. Sepulveda Blvd, Manhattan Beach.

Other branch officers who will take the reins of leadership from Heart leaders who have guided the heart cause in the Torrance-Walteria area and in the 23 communities of the Southwestern Branch include Dr. Daniel D. Hansen, 1966-67 branch medical vice chairman, and a Redondo civic leader, Mrs. Robert Driezler, who will act as branch secretary.

Dr. Paul A. Etkins, who will be the 1966-67 chairman of the area heart branch, established his practice in Inglewood and is affiliated with Daniel Freeman Hospital and other medical as-
